Trial of the Challenge Safe.
REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE.

We the undersigned, citizens of this City, respectfully submit to the public one of the Safes, made by Messrs Hornbach & Wagner, of this city which we have been requested to certify to that said Safe is proof against the attack of burglars, was subjected in our presence to the severest test which three skillful workmen, with the most approved tools and implements could bring to bear upon it for the space of 24 hours, and that every article packed in said Safe is perfectly secure from fire and water. The Safe was placed in a furnace, and a large fire built around, above and below it, and kept burning for the space of 4 hours and 30 minutes, during which time the heat was such as to melt lead and zinc, and reduce the paint on the outside of the Safe to a red hot fire, when we, the Committee considering the Safe sufficiently tested, had the fire drawn off and the Safe, which had been cooled off and the flames extinguished, opened and to the astonishment of all present, the articles deposited inside, including $5 00 in bank notes belonging to Mr Bliss, were found entirely dry and free from any signs of charring or damaged by the steam generated by extinguishing the flames

In a room next to the one in which said Safe was subjected to the above fiery ordeal, many more and much heavier ones than any ever before given, and this day we take the opportunity of recommending the Challenge Safes of Hornbach & Wagner to all who are in need of a safe guard for their books, papers and other valuables, as a perfect security against all the depredations of fire

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

A violent North-East storm has prevailed along the Atlantic Coast during the last two days, in marked contrast with the bright sunshine we have enjoyed here.

Two destructive fires occurred in the vicinity of this city early yesterday morning, involving the loss of some $15,000 or $20,000.

A Kansas aid meeting is to be held in our city to-night, when the agent of our State Association will make report of what he saw and heard in Kansas.

☞ A letter in this morning's paper, from Mr. W. A. WHITE, Chairman of our Republican State Committee, in reply to one heretofore published, from Mr. ROESER, satisfactorily answers, we think, the objections urged by Mr. R. to the calling of a Delegate Convention.

See our advertising columns for a number of business notices, news items and real estate sales.

From Our New York Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Tuesday, April 15, '56.

The Cambria brings the news that the hitch in the conclusions of the Peace Congress at Paris, had been removed, and that all was going on smoothly again, and that the 29th March was to be the day of final signature of a treaty of peace. I do not doubt it will be signed, or rather has been before this, and possibly it may be lasting, though it will leave many wounds behind, and much bitterness.

It would seem that some hope was yet entertained in England, that the Pacific may be floating disabled about the ocean, and the despatch by the Admiralty of two government steamers to cruise about for her, is one of those tributes to humanity which modern times only, and let us believe, the influence of the Christian religion, have witnessed and brought about. How different, and how far nobler this cruise of steamers armed for war, on an errand of mercy, than if employed to slaughter and destroy; and much more closely do such incidents as this and the search instituted by our own Grinnell, and adopted by the American government for the missing Arctic adventurers, draw the bonds of reciprocal trust and friendship between nations, than any parchment proclamations and protocols of diplomacy in peace Congresses. These speak from the common heart to the common heart, in the voice of nature and of blood—the other are cold, wire-drawn, closet speculations, appealing at best only to pride or self-interest. It is of good augury—every such incident—of that better time, when people shall learn war no more, and be competitors only for the triumphs of peace, and its useful and harmonizing conquests.

Analogous somewhat in character is the great fact, just embodied in the Report of the Secretary of State on emigration, that, since the year of 1843, that is, about 12 years, three millions and a half have been added to our population by foreign immigration! Think of it—a larger number than the whole people of the thirteen Colonies that declared and won their independence! And all this voluntary—self regulating—twice blessed—blessing them that receive and them that come. This, too, is such a fact as ancient history knows nothing of—of peaceful, unarmed, industrious, colonization. In other days, these redundant populations would have poured themselves out upon neighboring peoples as a desolating flood—sweeping before it the pre-established races, marring the works of their hands. Now, they come, those from the northern hive especially, with their wives and their children, their pastors and their teachers—their household gods and their household goods—to sit down by our fire sides as friends, neighbors, fellow-workers, in the great work, each for himself, "of doing his duty in that state of life to which it has pleased God to call him." And it is such a fact as this—such a great Providential ordinance—I do not fear to call it so—that the narrow bigotry of Know-Nothingism would ignore and set itself up against! How could such a transfer of men in nations from one hemisphere to the other, and from penury and oppression, to abundance and liberty, take place, or be expected to take place, without some occasional jar—some temporary abuse? There may, now and then, be riots of misled and unenlightened workmen on canals and railroads—but the canals and railroads are nevertheless made, and thus become the sources of new wealth, increased values, and still more canals and railroads.

Our pauper lists and our criminal lists may be doubled by an increase from foreign sources, but these bear no proportion—to consider the case merely in its financial aspect—to the resources brought hither or created here by their labor, of the tens and hundreds of thousands of strong arms and willing hearts which annually come to us from abroad. And then the higher consideration—why not say faith?—that these things were ordered of God! that the Great Ruler of the universe hath appointed this as the fitting time, for this new Exodus of over-teeming and ever worked populations of an exhausted Europe,—Surely, the bare possibility that this is a part of a great scheme of Providential government, should give pause to thoughtful minds ere they seek, from mere political, transient objections, to thwart and defeat it. The wave hiss indeed been stayed this year, by causes sufficiently apparent in the demands for war, and wish other demands resulting from the places made vacant by previous migrations: but it will swell again, and so long as we shall offer a free and open field to honest industry, and equal rights to all before the law, to all who will conform to law, the additions to our population from other lands will continue.

Congress, you will see, is dawdling away its time, doing nothing but President making. The lesson given by Governor Clark, in this State, to the like idlers of our Legislature, will be salutary here, although it may, in its consequences, bear hard upon interests that enlist all sympathy.—Yet there never was a more disreputable attempt than that of the factious combination which, in the Assembly of this State, strove to force the Governor to call an extra session, and which, after receiving full pay for 100 days, which the Constitution assumes to be sufficient for the purposes of legislation, would not sit, without pay, a few days, in order to complete the work for which they had taken pay, but neglected to work. I hope Gov. Clarke will persevere in his purpose not to call an extra session, and so leave the full responsibility of their disreputable course to those who pursued it.

Mr. Buchanan is expected to arrive here in about a week, and his advent will be the signal for more decided manifestations in his favor than have yet occurred as the democratic candidate.—We can and ought to beat him, or any other man who embraces the enormities of slavery propagandism.

INDICTED.—The Madison Argus states that the Grand Jury of Dane County, have indicted E. H. JANSSEN, late Treasurer, and D. M. SHAVER, Deputy, for embezzlement, and adds that Mr. SHAVER asked for a trial at this term, avowing his readiness to meet the issue.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

Letter from Wm. A. White.

MADISON, April 19, 1856.

CHARLES ROESER, ESQ.—DEAR SIR:—I found on my return from Chicago your favor of the 10th April, since published in the Free Democrat, and regret that you should not have waited for a reply before publishing your letter.

You say you cannot recognize the Republican State Com., because a majority of them are Know Nothings. Whether this is the case with all the members chosen, I cannot say, but all we have to do with at present are the members who were present, when it was decided to call the Convention. These were Messrs. Potter, Keyes, Atwood and myself. I believe no one pretends that Mr. Potter or myself belong to the Know Nothing organization, which of course does away with the charge, that the Convention was called to favor any particular body.

I had a conversation with Judge Potter the day before the Committee met, and we agreed that it would afford the Know Nothings the best facilities for packing the Convention by making a mass meeting. The counties of Dane, Rock, Walworth and Milwaukee have facilities of access to Madison to allow those counties to control any mass meeting, and in those counties exist active Know Nothing organizations. Whereas in a delegate Convention these counties are entirely counterbalanced by counties which will send true Republicans.

What has been the experience of other states in this matter? In Massachusetts last year where the Know Nothings have organizations in every town in the state, and where they afterwards elected their candidate for Governor, they failed to nominate Gardiner for Governor in a delegate Republican Convention. I candidly believe that a mass convention in this state would give us completely into the control of the Know Nothings, and it was on this ground that I voted for the delegate Convention. Judge Potter agreed with me, and though the question was not discussed in Com. it was decided as we wished.

You will thus see, that the call for the Convention did not originate as you supposed, and although Mr. Booth was here a day or two before the meeting of the Committee, and told me we ought to call a mass convention, I felt as much confidence in my own opinion, as in that of Mr. Booth, and shall for some time hold to my right to act as I think best, without dictation. The difficulty with Mr. Booth seems to be, that every one who does not think as he does, becomes immediately a Know-Nothing. I do not yield to Mr. Booth either in my zeal in the anti-slavery cause, or my opposition to the proscriptive course of the Know-Nothings, and subsequent events must prove which of us is wisest. It was somewhat bitterly said of one of the revolutionary patriots, that his idea of a republic was, that Massachusetts should rule the confederacy, that Boston should rule Massachusetts, and that he should rule Boston. This seems to be about Mr. Booth's idea of Republicanism.

It was of course with regret that I saw your's and Mr. Domschke's name appended to the call for a mass convention, as such a movement will only serve to distract the party and render our adopted citizens suspicious.

I hope therefore you will advise your fellow-countrymen, in common with all good republicans, to attend the Assembly district Conventions and send the right sort of men to represent them at Madison at the State Convention and I agree with you that unless the Republican party shall choose a new State Committee, which shall be free from the objections that can be brought against the present one, it will be the duty of all thorough going republicans to leave the party.

The prospects of success were never brighter than at this moment, and one strong and united effort may secure the success we so much desire.

Yours truly,
W. A. WHITE.
Chairman Republican State Committee

The Canvass.

Under this head the News of yesterday favors its readers with a comparison between the Janesville Gazette and the Milwaukee Sentinel—to the disparagement, of course, of the latter—founded upon their respective comments on the recent Apology put forth by the Ex-State Canvassers. As the article is doubtless a fair average of what we may look for from the News, under its new management, we extract a few samples. The News thus opens the case:

Our readers must have observed yesterday, an article we copied from the Janesville Gazette, (decidedly the ablest Shanghai paper in the State,) and that article, without giving up the election of Bashford, stated in distinct terms, that the canvassers could do nothing else in the premises except what they did.

Now, we ask our readers to look at the Milwaukee Sentinel. We ask them to look at the difference between the two Shanghai papers. The Gazette cool, honest, politic; the Sentinel equivocating, false, and painstaking to be false. The difference don't look well for Milwaukee.

It is sufficient to remark, in reply to the comparison thus instituted, that no such article ever appeared in the Janesville Gazette as the News imputes to it. What it credits to the Gazette was, in fact, taken from the Standard, a zealous BARROW paper. We leave the News to explain whether this wrong credit was a stupid, or wilful blunder. Of course, its premises being all wrong, its conclusions are necessarily and palpably false.

Passing from the general charge against the Sentinel, the News proceeds to specifications, as follows:

The Sentinel says that the canvassers did not touch upon "all the cases questioned in court or discussed elsewhere." All! Perhaps not, for there the Sentinel leaves a loop hole to creep out of. What the all that may have been discussed out of court is, we do not know, but the Sentinel does know that the returns generally charged as forgeries or frauds, were alluded to by the State Canvassers, and their reasons for not being able to refuse them were given.

The Sentinel knows nothing of the sort. On the contrary, it called special attention to the omitted cases, which were precisely those wherein the grossest frauds were charged. We refer to the precincts of Spring Creek, Bridge Creek and Gilbert's Mills. No mention of, or allusion to these is made in the Apology. And obviously for the all sufficient reason that no explanation can be made.

The News proceeds with its bill of indictment thus:

When the Sentinel says no reference is made to supplemental returns, we can only say that paper is guilty of a gross and deliberate falsehood. We are sorry to say it, sorry that any paper in this city should condescend to such gross violation of truth.

As the Sentinel never said any thing of the sort imputed to it, we must be permitted to share in the regret so pathetically expressed by the News, that any paper in this city should condescend to "such gross violation of truth," and at the same time bear false witness against a contemporary.

Lastly the News says:

We trust for the credit of our city, that the Sentinel does not mean to descend to quite as low a level as the Supreme Court. If it does, we can only say we pity the estate of the fallen, for the Sentinel once had a reputation for being able to get near the truth, even if it were in a round about manner.

We are afraid that the News will never attain even to the questionable reputation which it accords to the Sentinel, if it continues as it has commenced. The "level" occupied by our Supreme Court is a highly respectable one. In the honest judgment of every unprejudiced and thinking man in the State, the Supreme Court acquitted itself of the difficult task confided to its hands with firmness, dignity and wisdom; vindicating the will the People as expressed through the Ballot-box; fighting a great wrong and exposing a villainous fraud. For this, the Supreme Court has received, as it deserves, the cordial thanks of the People of this State, and the good opinions of the friends of Republican institutions and the purity of the Elective Franchise everywhere. Such a "level" the Sentinel is well content to share and the News might be proud to reach.

The Ladies

Are cordially invited to attend the Kansas Aid Meeting at Concert Hall on Tuesday evening the 22d inst. We sincerely hope they will favor us with their presence. The Ladies throughout the North and in Kansas have already done signal service for Freedom in this controversy. Will not the Ladies of Milwaukee City and County attend this meeting and cheer on the volunteers for Kansas? They helped in the day of the Revolution. Will they not help us by their presence in this second great struggle for independence?

By order of Com. of Arrangement.

The Meeting To-Night.

We remind our readers that the friends of Freedom in Kansas are invited to meet at Concert Hall, Fourth Ward, this evening, to hear the report of Mr. DANIELS, the Agent of the Emigrant Aid Society, and to perfect measures for starting a train from Milwaukee by the 1st of May. Let there be a general attendance of all who wish to see KANSAS Free!

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Mr. BOWERS, the boss carpenter in the Car Shop of the Lake Shore R. R. Company, shot himself accidentally on Sunday morning while gunning in the vicinity of Pewaukee Lake. He had put up some bushes to screen himself, on the border of the Lake, and, as is supposed, was drawing his gun towards him, when it exploded, sending the whole charge of heavy duck shot into his neck and breast. His death was probably instantaneous. The body was brought back to town yesterday morning.

Mr. Bowers was a skilful and industrious mechanic and leaves a wife and young family to mourn his sad fate.

SPEEDY JUSTICE.—Haydon, the dishonest clerk of Ball, Blank & Co., N. Y., who robbed his employers of some $40,000 worth of jewels, and was caught just as he was making off with his booty, was arraigned on Wednesday last, plead guilty and was sentenced to the State Prison for the full term, five years.

SUSPENSIONS.—The N. Y. Independent of Thursday last reports the following among other recent Commercial and business failures:

Farnham, Swedley & Kendall, Buffalo, N. Y., suspended.
W. H. Drew & Co., Buffalo, N. Y., suspended.
C. C. Bristol, Buffalo, N. Y., suspended.

Navigation in Minnesota.

We learn from the St. Paul papers of the 10th that the first boat up from Prescott arrived on the previous day. The ice opposite the city commenced moving on that day and in an hour the river was clear. Two boats left at once for the head of the Lake. The Minnesota is open from its mouth to the rapids; and is also open at different points above the rapids.

PUBLISHING THE LAWS.—The Green Bay Advocate has been selected by Secretary MARCY as one of the papers in which will be published officially the laws and resolutions of Congress, the treaties, &c. This is a compliment rightly bestowed upon an able and high-toned democratic paper.

Milwaukee Collegiate Institute.

MR. EDITOR:—Permit me, through your columns, to make my bow to the public, and along with it a brief explanation. I put forth advertisements, and made arrangements for the opening of the above named Institute, in perfect good faith. Subsequent circumstances induced me to resign the idea of founding a new institution, and to cast in my lot with one already established, by accepting a chair of the ancient languages and literature, in the University of Milwaukee. "Union there is strength."

By thus doing, I have not violated my implied pledges to the public. I shall be most happy to see the children or wards of all who intended to patronize the Institute, and for whose kindly intentions I am sincerely grateful, at the University building, on Thursday morning, the 24th inst.

And I shall labor just as zealously to further students onward in the educational course as I should in the other case.

"Come one, come all!"

Respectfully,
G. S. LORD STARES.

The N. Y. & Erie Railroad.

Having recently made a trip to New York, by way of Buffalo and Albany, thence down the Hudson river by rail to the city, I concluded to return by way of the N. York & Erie R. R. direct to Buffalo. I discovered in this route a great difference in the comfort and convenience of the two. In making the exchange I have been richly rewarded, and most unhesitatingly say to my fellow-travellers, try the N. York & E. R., direct from Buffalo to N. York. You will find a great difference in the comfort and convenience of the two routes—one a narrow contract ed car, the other broad and spacious; in the one you will be continually elbowed and crowded, in the other plenty of free air, broad alleys and seats; one passing through an old agricultural country, the other through the most delightful rural scenery in the world; in the one case you go direct to N. York, in the other you have a long, circuitous route. If you study comfort, convenience, time and health, go by the wide guage and broad cars, and my word for it, you will be pleased.

ADVERTISING AGENTS IN NEW-YORK.—The large amount of advertising done by New York business men, in the West and South, renders it necessary for the latter to have good and reliable agents in that city. We anticipated at one time, owing to the losses and annoyances experienced, to dispence with the services of agents altogether; but we found the difficulties arising from having no agent greater than those occasioned by the latter. In this emergency it is satisfactory to be able to find good and reliable agents, prompt and accurate in all transactions, and in every respect thoroughgoing business men. We have found such in S. M. Pettingill & Co. For several years we have transacted business with this office, and on no occasion did they fail to meet promptly all their engagements. The satisfaction we have experienced ourselves in our business transactions with these gentlemen, induces us to accord to them this voluntary testimonial, so that merit may be rewarded, and our friends of the press may have an opportunity of availing themselves of the same advantages that we enjoy, and which experience has rendered us fully capable of appreciating.—Cincinnati Gazette.

Messrs S. M. Pettingill & Co. are also the agents of The Pittsburg Gazette, in New York; and we cordially indorse the above statement of our Cincinatti contemporary as to their fidelity and promptness. Our business connections with them have always been of the most gratifying description, and we can recommend them to any of the press who are seeking reliable advertising agents in New York.—Pittsburg Gazette.

We can cheerfully endorse these commendations of Messrs. Pettengill & Co. Several years' business relations with them enables us to say that they are alike energetic, prompt and honest. —Albany Evening Journal.

We take pleasure in adding our recommendation of Messrs. Pettingill & Co. to the above testimonials in their favor, having found them faithful and useful agents for some years past. We would advise all those in want of such agents to employ Messrs. Pettengill & Co.—New Orleans Picayune.

The above commendations are well deserved, as we judge, both by the general tone of the country press and from somewhat extensive business transactions with the House referred to. We can recommend Messrs. P. & Co. to such of our publishing friends as desire newspaper agents in this metropolis.—N. Y. Tribune.

We take pleasure in adding our testimony to those of our contemporaries, in favor of Messrs. S. M. PETTENGILL & Co. We have always found them prompt, reliable and attentive. They are the agents for the Sentinel in New York.

MILL BURNED—HEAVY LOSS.—We received the news last week from a reliable source, that the large water mill at Menominee, owned by Ellsworth & Co., was on the first of the week, entirely consumed by fire. The mill contained seven an upright or muly saws, a siding mill, lath mills, &c., and had just been put in first rate repair for the season. We learn that the fire was caused by the friction of machinery, left running during the night to prevent its freezing up.—Green Bay Advocate.

Signing of the Treaty.

A Paris correspondence of the London Times says:

"A Council of Ministers was held at the Tuileries, at half past 11 o'clock, and remained sitting till quarter past 12. The Emperor presided and gave his last instructions, and Count Walewski returned to his official residence to receive the Plenipotentiaries. They appeared in full uniform, and wore all their orders and decorations. They assembled in the Salle de Conference before half past 12, and after the treaty was read over, proceeded to sign it in the same alphabetical order in which they have been wont to take their places during the conferences.

"Crowds of people had been out from an early hour, as it was known that something important was to occur, and numerous spectators gathered on the quays opposite and close to the Foreign Office, to see the Plenipotentiaries pass. These were received, both on going and returning, with marks of great respect from the people. Everything took place as mentioned. The moment the signatures were completed, the expected signal was given and the cannon from the esplanade of the Invalides proclaimed the news before the Plenipotentiaries had quitted the hall. Soon after, the following notice was posted up on the walls of Paris:

CONGRESS OF PARIS, March 30, 1856.

"Peace has been signed this day, at 1 o'clock, at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The Plenipotentiaries of France, Austria, Great Britain, Prussia, Russia, Sardinia and Turkey, have affixed their signatures to the treaty, which puts an end to the present war, and which, by settling the question of the East, establishes the repose of Europe on solid and durable bases.

Signed, PIETRI, Prefect of Police.

"This notice was read by thousands with intense curiosity, and with great satisfaction. Soon after appeared a supplement to the Moniteur, containing the same announcement. The effect produced is of course all that could be imagined, and the feeling would very probably have been much more strongly expressed, had it not been that for two or three days past, the conclusion was confidently expected for this day. The weather is fine, the day serene, the sun warm and undimmed, and all the thoroughfares are thronged with people. Already preparations are made for the illuminations of to night, which it is expected will rival the display on the birth of the Imperial Prince.

"Plenipotentiaries will continue to meet during the present week, as before, to the settlement of other matters, not of a light or unimportant character, which have not yet been settled. They and the resident members of the diplomatic corps dine in full uniform, with the Minister of Foreign Affairs to-morrow. The treaty will not be made public until the exchange of ratifications, and as Constantinople and St. Petersburgh are distant from Paris, the Plenipotentiaries remain bound by their obligation of silence for two or three weeks to come."

SPIRIT FASHIONS IN THE SPIRIT WORLD.—Betsy L. G., whose letters from the Spirit World are published in the New England Spiritualist, thus describes the spring style of dress in the Celestial Sphere. She gives us her idea of Heaven, in full dress:—

"The males generally wear loose white garments with a girdle made of different kinds of material, generally of silver or gold cord. Some wear jewels, but this is not common. They wear their beards and hair long, and sandals of velvet of different hues. The females are more elaborate in dress; they have more taste that way; and are allowed to indulge it, for the motive of dress here is not as of earth. It is not for vanity or any such motive, but from a love of the pure and beautiful, and a desire to do everything pleasant in the sight of God."

"I generally dress in a light blue dress made loose and flowing, and bound with silver or white silk; a silver cord around the waist, or a jeweled girdle. I wear my long hair braided, and sometimes flowing, or bound with a silver band. I have also white dresses, of so fine a fabric, they look like air; this kind I am very fond of wearing. With such a dress I wear an emerald girdle made in the shape of leaves, and forming a wreath; this is clasped by one large pearl. I bind my hair with a string of pearls when I wear such a dress. I wear white slippers always."

INANIMATE PREACHER.—Sydney Smith thus comments on the dead and formal style of preaching common in English pulpits, and not altogether unknown on this side of the water:—"Why are we natural everywhere but in the pulpit? No man expresses warm and animated feeling anywhere else, with his mouth alone, but with his whole body; he articulates with every limb, and talks from head to foot with a thousand voices. Why this holoplexia on sacred occasions alone? Why call in the aid of paralysis to piety? Is it a rule of oratory to place the style against the subject, and to speak in the most sublime truths in the dullest language and driest manner? Is sin to be taken from men as Eve was from Adam, by casting them into a deep slumber? Or from what possible perversion of common sense are all to look like field preachers in Zembla, holy lumps of ice numbed into quiescence, and stagnation and mumbling? There is, I grant, something discouraging at present to a man of sense in the sarcastical phrase of 'popular preacher;' but I am not entirely without hope that the time may come when energy in the pulpit may be no longer considered as a mark of superficial understanding; when animation and elocution will be separated as churches will cease (as Swift says) to be public dormitories; and sleep be no longer looked upon as the most convenient vehicle of good sense."

☞ The Milwaukee Banner is agitated on account of the rumored investigation, by the Dane County Grand Jury, into the forgeries of the late State Canvass, and reiterates the story set afloat by the Argus that the fees of witnesses summoned for that purpose will cost the people of this county from $6700 to $8,000. Mr. Firman the Clerk of the Court—good Democratic authority—informs us that these fees amount to only $52 instead of $1000. We also understand, on good authority, that the proof of the forgeries was conclusive, but that not being committed in this county, our Grand Jury conceived that they had no power to take cognizance of them. They overlooked the fact that they were uttered here, which was virtually the same as perpetrating them here.

—Will the Banner please correct and state the the truth?—Madison Journal.

HAILING IN.—We took occasion last week, to notice the alterations in the position of the American Party as indicated by its organ at Milwaukee. Fearing the effect of the articles might be stronger than it was intended, a few days subsequent, the American comes out with a disclaimer, avowing a willingness to vote with the Republicans this time, if they can agree upon a candidate, i. e., to make plain English of it, if the Republicans will nominate a Know Nothing. After that the Americans will try what they can do by themselves.

He further says that Seward can never be accepted by the American party. If these are the "concessions" which Republicans are to be called upon to make, we apprehend they will be loth to ratify the contract. The great mass of American freemen, listen to the name and words of Wm. H. Sewa d, with the warmest emotion, and would hail his nomination with the most sincere enthusiasm.

Of all the names before the American Public, in connection with the Presidency, Wm. H. Seward is our preference. The American takes special pains to inform the public, that it has no affinity with Wisconsin Republicans, and especially with the Wisconsin Republican Press; claiming no principles in common, save that of opposition to the present National Administration." A narrow platform truly, too narrow entirely, to sustain a victorious party. "The equality of all mankind," irrespective of birth-place or color, is the only fundamental basis which can bind together and make lasting any great National Party. Such we consider the basis of the Republican Party. When it makes principle subordinate, and desire for power merely predominant, our sympathy for and with the Republican Party ceases.—Berlin Courant.

BAD FOR SPECULATORS.—Immense quantities of public lands have been entered by speculators under the Graduation Act of 1854 at very low prices, in some instances as low as twelve and a half cents. The act required that lands entered in accordance with its provisions should be sold for purposes of actual occupation and improvement only and demanded an oath from the purchaser to that effect. Speculators, nevertheless, managed to get around the oath and by a system of hard swearing, smacking pretty strongly of perjury, have entered more land of this description than actual settlers. The Commissioner of the General Land Office has, however, taken a step toward rectifying the wrong, and in a circular to the local land officers, directs that proof of actual settlement by the purchaser himself and not by proxy. In cases where proof is wanting, the land reverts to Government and will become the property of the claimant upon the payment of $1 25 per acre.

This a simple act of justice as surprising as it is creditable. We had no cause to expect any such interference against the speculators and in favor of the poor and landless from the present government. It is contrary to all precedent, and deserves to be commended and encouraged.—Mineral Pt. Tribune.

☞ There was a report in town last evening that the new Flouring Mill at Weyauwega, owned by Messrs. Weed & Gunnaer of this city, had been destroyed by fire. We have been unable to trace the report to a reliable source. If true, it is a very serious loss, being one of the best Mills in the country and valued at $20,000.—Oshkosh Courier.

EMIGRATION.—Some fifty or sixty emigrants, chiefly German, arrived here on the cars Saturday evening, en route for Green Bay. Several arrived here also on Friday. This is about a month earlier than the tide of emigration has heretofore flowed in this direction.—Fond du Lac Co., 10th.

The party of emigrants above mentioned arrived in our city the first of the week, and are as fine and robust a looking party as we have seen in a long time. By letters received here during the winter, from the "old country," we learn that about 4,000 emigrants, Belgians, are preparing to come to this city, and locate in Brown county, this season. Door and Kewaunee counties are also receiving their share of the heavy emigration now flowing into Northern Wisconsin.—Green Bay Adv.

THE "FANNIE FISK."—This fine boat fired up last Monday, took a turn to Depere and back and is now at her owner's dock on the other side of the river. No pains seem to be spared in making her complete in every respect, and we are glad to see that care is taken to secure the greatest possible safety in regard to steam and fire. In addition to the usual tryecocks on the boilers, approved water and steam gauges are attached, together with what is called a "fusible plug" which melts at a certain point of heat and allows the steam and water to escape from the boilers. An excellent force pump, with hose, is also fitted up.

The engine was manufactured at the Howard Foundry, and will undoubtedly prove to be a fine one.—Green Bay Advocate.

STEAM TUG WRECKED.—On Saturday evening the steam tug Follet went out in the afternoon to assist in relieving the wrecked schooner Advance and while out, the wind increased to a severe gale which rendered it impossible for her to make the harbor. The crew of the Follet are all safe, though she lost her pilot house, and now lies on the beach filled with water. She will be raised and put in running order again in a few days.—Chicago Tribune.

☞ The Editor of the Sandy Hill Herald keeps a daily Calendar after this fashion, pleasing himself with seeing how it grows day by day "beautifully less:"

PIERCE ALMANAC FOR 1856.—Franklin Pierce's apprenticeship in the White House will expire in three hundred and twenty-seven days, six hours and two seconds from to-day at 10½ A. M.

☞ Our democratic friend Robinson, of the Green Bay Advocate, is fortunate enough to have for his better half a lady whose proclivities are decidedly Whig. This furnishes the key to the following, from the last number of the Advocate:

MORE GARDEN SEEDS.—Really, this is getting to be alarming. Every other mail now-a-days brings a lot of garden seeds from some Whig or Republican Congressman or other to our wife.—Here comes now a lot of them, a dozen packages at least, of Gomphrena Globosas, and Balsamina Hortensis, and Amaranthus Hypochondriacus, and what not. Senator Durkee has been doing this. If he would frank us a little bigger, now, to sow and weed them, we wouldn't care. But to have to do that ourself besides writing an acknowledgement for them and all that, when they didn't come to us, and are nothing but complimented between members of a party which collapsed long ago, is too much for human nature, and probably not to be borne much longer.

DEATH OF MR. GEORGE H. HUTCHENS.—We copy from El Nicaraguense, of March 22d, the following account of the death of Mr. GEORGE H HUTCHENS, a gentleman who had many warm friends in this city.

Among the unpleasant duties of the week we are called on to announce the death of Mr. Geo. H. Hutchens, of New York. Mr. Hutchens came to Granada in the last steamer, but was unfortunately seized with fever on the 12th inst., and notwithstanding the continual attendance of kind friends and the best medical advice, expired at noon on Thursday last. Mr. H. was one of the most promising merchants of New York, and ranked high among that special class which has raised the mercantile credit of that city to its present honorable eminence. He entered into business for himself at the age of nineteen, and at the time of his death was a leading partner in the well known firm of Chas. I. Kane & Co., of Nos. 51 and 52 Pine Street. Mr. H. came to Nicaragua with a large invoice of goods, and also with the view of making a proposition to the government for a line of propellers between New York and Greytown; and his death is therefore to be regretted as a loss to this country as well as to his native city. Nearly all the prominent residents of Granada, Spanish, foreign and American, attended his funeral, and his body, covered with the American flag and adorned with Masonic symbols, was buried before the grand altar, in the San Francisican church. Officers of the army deposited him in his resting place, and Col. Fry, who is at the head of this department, read the burial service. Mr. H. was about thirty-seven years of age at the time of his death, and leaves a wife and two children to deplore his loss.

MARRIED.

On the 15th inst., by the Rev. S. G. Spees, Mr. WILLIAM MCKITRIC, to Mrs. CATHARINE NICOLS, all of this city.

Review of Markets, for the Week ending April 22.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL,
MILWAUKEE, April 22, 1856.

Arrived by lake during the past week: 270 tons coal, 1,053,000 ft. lumber, 845 m shingles, 119 m lath, 500 cedar posts, 40 cord- bark, 9,573 bus oats, 1408 bus potatoes, 2750 do corn, 600 do barley, 67 bbls highwines, 75 rolls leather.

Shipped by lake; 146 tons coal, 182 bbls beer, 214 boxes soap, 2968 bbls 2300 sacks salt, 800 bbls provisions, 195 tons coal, 140 kegs lead, 365 bbls lime, 200 bus malt.

Received by Mil. & Miss. R. R.—124 bus wheat, 251 do corn, 234 do potatoes, 101 hides, 299 bbls 21 sacks flour, 5 cars stone, 4 bbls eggs, 140 doz brooms,

The receipts of produce during the past week have been very light, and business dull. The arrival of a steamer with news of an advance caused holders to advance their views, but buyers do not feel inclined to venture, and money, besides a very scarce and hard to get. Indeed, we do not remember a time, of late years, when money was so difficult to obtain for the demands of business.

Several failures have recently occurred in the country, involving in a measure, some of our merchants. It is thought that the rage for speculation is tempting many of those who are engaged in business, to embark in outside operations, to the injury of merchants to whom debts are owing. Certain it is, that many country merchants are asking extensions and openly giving as a reason that they "have their money tied up in real estate, from which they expect to realize largely." Such operations too often prove disastrous.

Wheat—We note an advance, though with so few transactions that the real state of the market is scarcely to be judged correctly by them. Winter remains at 130a140 Spring sells at 125a130, for the best for seed and to the mills. Common qualities are held at 115a120, and dealers exhibit some determination to discriminate more than has hitherto been done in regard to the quality of wheat in their purchases.

Barley continues in active demand, and the supply very limited. Sales are made at 160a165.

Rye, little doing, but steady at 100a100

Oats 25a28.

Corn wanted at 60a60

We are receiving some supplies of Corn and Oats from the South by steamers, the supply by railroads being inadequate to the demand. A singular feature of trade is, that while we have imported barley the past week from Chicago, we have shipped about the same quantity in mails to that city.

POTATOES—are wanted at 37½@31,00, and tendency still upward. Considerable quantities are also coming from the South.

In other articles we note very little, if any, change from our last quotations.

The weather has been quite favorable. Timely rains have visited the earth, and the fields begin to smile again after the long and severe winter.

CITY MATTERS.

Closing of the Mails.

THE PUBLIC are notified that the Mails for the North, South, East and West close at 10 P. M., and for Madison, Waukesha, Whitewater and the East and South, at 1 P. M.

Milwaukee, March 27. mar27dtf

POLICE COURT, APRIL 21.

BEFORE CLINTON WAILWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

Twelve cases were disposed of in the forenoon as follows: John Fay, drunk and disorderly sent to jail 10 days in default of $5,00 fine; Andrew Schanke fined $5 00 for drunkenness and disorderly conduct; Patrick Fraley drunk and disorderly $5,00; John Goetz, do $8,00; Michael N. Wright, drunk $1,00; Lawrence Hayden restriking officer 20 days to jail or $10,00 fine, committed.

B. J. Burr, W. Underwood, Sebastien Grunbagen and Alexander Goslin were each fined $2,00 for discharging fire arms within the city limits on Sunday.

Joseph Hadley running a horse in the street fined $5,00 and costs.

SATION ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A man named David Carmody was tried for a savage assault and battery upon George Scanlan. The defendant was armed with "knuckles," a sort of leaden casing for the natural knuckles, a species of instrument never used except by rowdies and officers. The complainant was badly hurt, being cut in several places. The court convicted him and sentenced him to 50 days imprisonment in the County Jail.

Destructive Fires—Paper Mill and Four Locomotives Burnt.

At about 8 A. M., yesterday, a bright flame was seen to rise above the high grounds west of the city, and an alarm brought out the firemen. The bells tolled the alarm for the Fourth Ward, but the scene of destruction proved to be about a mile west of the city limits. The paper mill of Messrs. E. Phinney & Co., of this city, recently put in operation, was entirely destroyed. The man in charge states that he left the building after midnight, having locked the door, and was awakened only to find the flames in full possession, and the door unlocked and open. The mill was insured for $8,500, $2,500 in the Mechanic's Mutual of this city, and $1,500 in the Exchange Mutual, of Philadelphia. The loss beyond insurance is about $3,000 The mill had been running and doing a good business since February last. It was 80 feet by 20 feet on the ground, 2½ stories high, of frame, with an addition for a straw & bleaching room.

Simultaneously almost with the burning of Prieger's Mill, the Engine House of the Lake Shore R. R. Company, about two miles south of the city, was destroyed by fire, and its contents, including four first-class Locomotives, two stationary engines and much valuable machinery, greatly damaged. The building was of wood and burnt rapidly. The engines cost about $10,000 each, and it will take at least $1800 apiece, if not more, to repair damages. The house cost some $2000, and the other property as much more. The total loss is variously estimated at from $5000 to $10,000. There was no insurance on the property. The Firemen turned out and proceeded some ways towards the fire, but finding that it was some distance beyond the city limits they gave up the chase. Some parties attribute the fire to spontaneous combustion among the waste, and others think that it was the work of design.

The alarm of fire at 10 o'clock A. M. yesterday was caused by the burning out of a chimney as the Walker House.

THEATRE—YOUNG'S HALL.—There was a very good house at the Theatre last night, and the performances were greatly enjoyed and heartily applauded by the public. The Company grows daily in favor with our theatre-goers, and the houses steadily improve.

To night, a very attractive bill is offered, embracing three favorite pieces, "Perfection," "The Toodles," and "The Young Widow."

MAZO-MANIE.—In calling attention to the advertisement of lots for sale at MAZO-MANIE, we omitted to say that the M. & M Rail Road would be completed to that point within the coming month of May, and that it is to be the principal Eating and Business Station between Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien.

SITUATION WANTED.—Any Wholesale Grocerites or Hardware House desirous, of obtaining the services of a steady young man, who is 17 years of age, liberally educated, and who wishes to apply himself strictly to his duties, may hear of such a person by applying at this office.

FOR SUPERIOR.—The steamer Superior will leave the South Pier on Thursday morning at 8 o'clock, for Superior. For freight apply to Dousman & Co.—for passage, &c., apply to John Griffin, near the American Express Co.'s Office on Huron Street.

DEALERS IN

FINE CLOTHING!

AND

MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS!

No. 107 East Water Street,

MILWAUKEE, - - - WISCONSIN

IN presenting their compliments to the citizens of Milwaukee and its vicinity, respectfully invite their attention to a large and superior stock of

READY MADE CLOTHING,

AND

MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS,

Which they have just opened at 107 East Water Street as the agent of one of the largest houses in the city of New York, and having great facilities for manufacturing, both in Newark, N. J., and New York, and employing good taste in selection of materials, and mechanical abilities of the highest order in their manufacture, it is no vain boast to say that their stock presents unusual attractions. Their goods having been sold for the past eight years to the best Dealers in the principal cities of the Union, and, as they believe, have given satisfaction in all cases, and their basis satisfactorily to an unparalleled degree, they feel fully justified in saying to the citizens of Wisconsin that to anything heretofore offered in the West. We warrant every article to please—if not, to refund the money. Our object is to consult the interest of the consumer, and thereby promote our own. And in opening this branch in this flourishing and thriving city, we present an article not only superior in style and workmanship to those usually offered, but equal in durability and fit to garments made in any customer department in the Union. We also embrace this opportunity to say that, as it appears fashionable in this market for Clothiers to inform the public of their intending fashions of the Parsian styles of the season, we receive, direct from one of the best reporters in the European market, a suit of clothes at each of the various seasons of the year, and though we do not always recommend it as being superior to the American, yet, if parties prefer, we can give it to them in advance of any other establishment. We are pleased to fit the head as well as the body.

Our Furnishing Goods Department

Embraces the largest variety of styles, and as one of the firm is always to be found in the New York market, we shall always be daily in receipt of them, and fully up to the times.

TO THOSE IN PURSUIT OF A SHIRT,

We solicit special attention. As we have a manufactory of our own which produces over one hundred and fifty dozen per week, we are prepared to furnish the various grades, and at prices that cannot fail to please. Gentlemen wishing a particular kind will find it to their interest to call on us, as they can be accommodated on very short notice. City and Country Dealers supplied at New York prices and in the latest terms.

POLICE COURT, APRIL 21.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

Twelve cases were disposed of in the forenoon as follows: John Fay, drunk and disorderly sent to jail 10 days in default of $3,00 fine; Andrew Schanke fined $5,-60 for drunkenness and disorderly conduct; Patrick Fraley drunk and disorderly $8,00; John Goetz, do $8.00; Michael N. Wright, drunk $1,00; Lawrence Hayden resisting officer 20 days to jail or $10,00 fine, committed.

E. J. Burr, W. Underwood, Sebastien Grunhagen and Alexander Goslin were each fined $2,00 for discharging fire arms within the city limits on Sunday.

Joseph Hadley running a horse in the street fined $5,00 and costs.

SATAON ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—A man named David Carmoody was tried for a savage assault and battery upon George Scanlan. The defendant was armed with "knuckles," a sort of leaden casing for the natural knuckles, a species of instrument never used except by rowdies and sailors. The complaint was badly made, being out in several places. The court convicted him and sentenced him to 20 days imprisonment in the County Jail.

Destructive Fires—Paper Mill and Four Locomotives Burnt.

At about 3 A. M., yesterday, a bright flame was seen to rise above the high grounds west of the city, and an alarm brought out the firemen. The bells tolled the alarm for the Fourth Ward, but the scene of destruction proved to be about a mile west of the city limits. The paper mill of Messrs. E. FRISBIE & CO., of this city, recently put in operation, was entirely destroyed. The man in charge states that he left the building after midnight, having locked the door, and was awakened only to find the flames in full possession, and the door unlocked and open. The mill was insured for $2,500, $2,500 in the Mechanics' Mutual of this city, and $1,500 in the Exchange Mutual, of Philadelphia. The loss beyond insurance is about $8,000. The mill had been running and doing a good business since February last. It was 80 feet by 20 feet on the ground, 2½ stories high, of frame, with an addition for a straw bleaching room.

Simultaneously almost with the burning of Frisbie's Mill, the Engine House of the Lake Shore R. R. Company, about two miles south of the city, was destroyed by fire, and its contents, including four first-class Locomotives, two stationary engines and much valuable machinery, greatly damaged. The building was of wood and burnt rapidly. The engines cost about $10,000 each, and it will take at least $1000 apiece, if not more, to repair damages. The house cost some $2000, and the other property as much more. The total loss is variously estimated at from $5000 to $10,000. There was no insurance on the property. The Firemen turned out and proceeded some ways towards the fire, but finding that it was some distance beyond the city limits they gave up the chase. Some parties attribute the fire to spontaneous combustion among the waste, and others think that it was the work of design.

The alarm of fire at 10 o'clock A M. yesterday was caused by the burning out of a chimney as the Walker House.

THEATRE—YOUNG'S HALL.—There was a very good house at the Theatre last night, and the performances were greatly enjoyed and heartily applauded by the public. The Company grows daily in favor with our theatre-goers, and the houses steadily improve.

To night, a very attractive bill is offered, embracing three favorite pieces, "Perfection," "The Toodles," and "The Young Widow."

MAZO-MANIE.—In calling attention to the advertisement of lots for sale at MAZO-MANIE, we omitted to say that the M. & M Rail Road would be completed to that point within the coming month of May, and that it is to be the principal Eating and Business Station between Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien.

SITUATION WANTED.—Any Wholesale Groceries or Hardware House desirous, of obtaining the services of a steady young man, who is 17 years of age, liberally educated, and who wishes to qualify himself strictly to his duties, may hear of such a person by applying at this office.

FOR SUPERIOR.—The steamer Superior will leave the South Pier on Thursday morning at 8 o'clock, for Superior. For freight apply to Dousman & Co.—for passage, &c., apply to John Griffin, near the American Express Co.'s Office on Huron Street.

DEALERS IN

FINE CLOTHING!

AND

MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS!

No. 107 East Water Street,

MILWAUKEE, - - - WISCONSIN

IN presenting their compliments to the citizens of Milwaukee and its vicinity, respectfully invite their attention to a large and superior stock of

READY MADE CLOTHING,

AND

MEN'S FURNISHING GOODS,

Which they have just opened at 107 East Water Street where they are a branch of one of the largest houses in the city of New York, and having superior facilities for manufacturing, both in Newark, N. J., and New York, and employing good taste in selection of materials, and mechanical abilities of the highest order in their manufacture, it is no vain boast to say that their stock presents unusual attractions. Their goods having been sold for the past 10 years to the first Gentlemen in the principal cities of the Union, and, as they believe, have given satisfaction in all cases, and their business increased in an unparalleled degree, they feel fully justified in saying to the citizens of Wisconsin that to anything heretofore offered in the West. We warrant every article to please—if not, to refund the money. Our object is to consult the interest of the consumer, and thereby promote our own. And in opening this branch in this flourishing and thriving city, we present an article not only superior in style and workmanship to those usually offered, but equal in durability and fit to garments made in any customer department in the Union. We also embrace this opportunity to say that, as it appears fashionable in this market for Clothiers to inform the public of their introducing fashions of the Parisian style, that we receive, direct from one of the best reporters in the European markets, a suit of clothes at each of the various seasons of the year, and though we do not always recommend it as being superior to the American, yet, if parties prefer, we can give it to them in advance of any other establishment. We are pleased to make head as well as the body.

Our Furnishing Goods Department

Embraces the largest variety of styles, and as one of the firm is always to be found in the New York market, we shall always be daily in receipt of them, and fully up to the times.

TO THOSE IN PURSUIT OF A SHIRT,

We solicit special attention. As we have a manufactory of our own which produces over one hundred and fifty dozen per week, we are prepared to furnish the various grades, and at prices that cannot fail to please. Gentlemen wishing a particular kind will find it to their interest to call on us, as they can be accommodated on every short notice. City and Country Dealers supplied at New York prices, and on liberal terms.

A large assortment of BOYS' CLOTHING constantly on hand.
